First Sunday of Lent

Pastors' Desk

Do you want to change?

The spiritual life is not lived outside, before, after, or beyond our everyday existence. No, the spiritual life can be real only as it is lived in the midst of the pains and joys of the here and now. Therefore, we need to begin with a careful look at the way we think, speak, feel and act from hour to hour, day to day, week to week, and year to year, in order to become more fully aware of our hunger for the Spirit. As long as we have only a vague inner feeling of discontent with our present way of living, and only an indefinite desire for "things spiritual", our lives will continue to stagnate in a generalized melancholy. We often say, "I am not very happy. I am not content with the way my life is going. I am not really joyful or peaceful. But I don't know how things can be different, and I guess I have to be realistic and accept my life as it is". It is this mood of resignation that prevents us from actively naming our reality, articulating our experience and moving more deeply into the life of the Spirit.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:4-10

Moses discusses the power God has displayed in freeing his people from oppression and leading them to a rich land. He tells the people that they should make offerings to God to show their gratitude, then celebrate over the great things he has given them.

Second Reading: Romans 10:8-13

Paul tells us that if we proclaim, "Jesus is Lord" and truly believe that God raised him from the dead, we will be saved. For God shows his mercy toward everyone who calls upon his name.

Gospel: Luke 4:1-13

Jesus fasted in the desert for forty days, then Satan appeared to him and tempted him to turn stone into bread. After Jesus refused, Satan promised him great powers if Jesus would worship him. Jesus replied that he would worship God and no one else. Then Satan tried to persuade Jesus to put God to the test, but again Jesus resisted his temptation.

Meditations

Jesus repeatedly said the poor, the hungry, and the outcasts were blest. No one wants to be poor. But the more we have, the less time we have for God. When we feel self-sufficient, where is there a need for God? Hunger gnaws at us until we are fed. Our bodies require food to function. Our souls also need to be fed - not just now and then but daily. Through prayer and the Eucharist we can nourish our hungry souls. Following God's will, doing what is right is not always popular and it may even make us outcasts at times. It is really more important to agree with others or to follow your own conscience? Reflect on the concerns that fill your days. Where is God in your life?

*Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord,
Whose hope is in the Lord..
-Jeremiah 17:7*
