Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Fathers Day

Pastors Desk - The Bonds of Family and Friends

"He has put my family far from me, and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me." (Job 19:13)

In this passage from the Book of Job, Job is describing some of his trials and sufferings. This verse I believe states one of Jobs greatest sufferings: Job is separated from his family and friends. In other words, Job feels estranged from his loved ones.

Some of us are blessed with a supportive family and caring friends. But, even if we are, sometimes, circumstances can separate us from those we love and we can feel estranged or even abandoned. Also, none of us have the ideal family or friends. At times our loved ones can fall short of meeting our needs or expectations. When this happens, it is good to recall that patience and forgiving lie at the heart of all good and healthy relationships. Remember, too, that on the cross, Jesus was abandoned by most of His family and friends. But, after the Resurrection, He forgave His apostles for deserting Him, thus restoring the bond between them. Jesus, help me to strengthen the bonds of our family and friends by patience and forgiveness. Help us to become more like You.

First Reading: Zechariah 12:10-11, 13:1

Zechariah describes the mourning that will occur over Jesus' crucifixion. The people of Jerusalem will mourn him as they would mourn an only son or a fallen king.

Second Reading: Galatians 3:26-29

Paul reinforces that all those who accept Christ are equal in God's eyes. Man or woman, Jew or Greek, is unimportant in God's eyes if you have true faith in Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 9:18-24

Jesus asks the disciples who they think he is. They reply that he is the Messiah. Jesus forbids them to tell this to others, and explains that first he must suffer, be put to death, and rise up on the third day. He explains to them that they also must be willing to suffer for his sake if they wish to be saved..

Meditations

Paul tells us that in Christ we are one. The differences of nationality, social status, sex or any other differences our human nature may perceive are of no importance. We are bonded together on a deeper level. How do you see the people in your life? Do you find yourself looking down on some or in awe of others? Do you go out of your way only for those you deem worthy of your efforts? How do your attitudes measure up to the concept that we are all one body in Christ? Make a special effort to see the invisible people you walk past every day and be especially kind and courteous to everyone you meet. Reflect on how this affects your day, your spirit, as well as the responses of those around you.

Lord, help me to see others through your eyes so that I may respond to them with your loving kindness.
