Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastors Desk

The family of believers

Honor everyone. Love the family of believers (1Peter 2:17)

We belong to many different families. First, we belong to our family of origin. Some of us also belong to a family we ourselves have established. Then we belong to our extended family, composed of grandparents, aunts, uncles, in-laws, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins of all kinds. We also belong to a local family. But in these words from St. Peter, we are reminded of another family to which we belong: the family of believers.

The truth is we are connected to our fellow Christians everywhere - from those we worship with on Sundays to those living on the other side of the planet. We are united with them on Sundays to those living on the other side of the planet. We are united with them on a deep level by our common baptism, our shared belief in Jesus and our religious practices, most notably the Eucharist and our acts of love and charity. What an encouragement this union can be for us! And the family of believers also extends beyond the grave to include those who have gone before us in faith. All of this means we are never alone. NEVER!

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead. Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.

Meditations

The Our Father is a prayer we say so often that we seldom stop to think about what we are saying. Take some time to say this prayer slowly out loud and reflect on each phrase. You may want to focus on one phrase at a time and take several days to go through the prayer. Notice what is asked for in the prayer: what is needed for today, forgiveness as we forgive others, and avoiding temptation. Reflect on what you need for the day. Consider how you have forgiven someone who has offended you - is this how you want to be forgiven? What are the temptations in your life? Do you take any active steps to avoid them.

The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; thy steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever.
Psalm 138

The Compassionate Friends, a self help group for bereaved parents, siblings, and grandparents will be meeting on Thursday, August 11th at St. Christopher Church, 1050 Littleton Road (Rt. 202), at 7:30 pm in room 101. Program: Vacations without our children, do we visit the same spots or avoid them?

~0~

“And he said to them, ‘Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says ‘Friend lend me three loaves of bread...’ ‘I tell you if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of his friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence...’ ‘Lord teach us to pray as John taught his disciples.’”

From our earliest days, we were taught to pray. We learned prayers, recited them with faith and devotion, and often used formulas which we did not really understand. The word today offers a remedy.

The apostles observed Jesus at prayer. Something special was portrayed before their eyes. This led them to ask for a prayer lesson. The petitions, the praise, the expression of remorse provide a summary for prayer 101. Perhaps they saw a special peace and intimacy reflected in Jesus.

The passage continues with the conversation and the request of one friend develops. The lesson is clear ‘don’t give up’ or ‘hang in there’, especially if you think that the Lord is too busy listening to others. Or ‘help me help the one in need.’ We don’t have to wait on line or jump through hoops to get God’s attention. He knows our needs, but only wants us to acknowledge our dependence and His generosity.

Perseverance in prayer is a gift from God. May I make it my first request.
