Passion (Palm Sunday) - Refitting lost status

Modern celebrities are famous for dodging well deserved penalties with the challenge, “Do you know who I am?” We could imagine the innocent Jesus quoting that line as he hung on the cross, for his actual words confirm the lack of knowledge of his executioners: “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do”. Disciples of Jesus do not need to play the entitlement cards, for we are aware of our importance as children of God, the body of Christ and the light of the world. Still we do not boast our credentials for personal gain, for we embody the Lord’s overriding concern for the dignity of the forgotten, the outcast and the downtrodden. We do not dress for success then, but we refit our worldly cloths to “put on Christ” who rides to glory on a donkey. In this way the status of the ordinary and forgotten may be rescued from the anonymity of a celebrity culture and reinstated as celebrated children of God.

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

In a tone of quiet sadness, Isaiah describes the buffets and insults given to the Suffering Servant. The passage ends on a note of hope.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

In exultant tones, Paul tells the Philippians to rejoice because Christ became man, died on the cross, rose from the dead, and sits triumphantly at the right hand of the Father.

Gospel: Matthew 26:14—27:66

This is the solemn narrative of the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew recounts the treachery and betrayal of Judas and then describes the events of the Last Supper, culminating in the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus endures the Agony in the Garden; he is then brought before Caiaphas and Pilate and condemned to death. After His resurrection, the centurions shouted, "Clearly this was the Son of God!"

Please join us, and those in over 340 cities around the world, in transforming our culture by praying for the babies and their mothers and fathers, for those who need post-abortive healing, and for those who work at Planned Parenthood. Reflections

Lent offers us a time to reflect on our discipleship. How well we are following the example Jesus gave us? Instead of comparing ourselves in light of the accomplishments and failures of others, we should be looking at Jesus. How do we treat others - with compassion and forgiveness or with harshness and condemnation? Do we look for ways to help people or do we focus on what they can do for us? What do we do with our resources and gifts - hoard them or share them with those around us? If you think you are doing a great job as a disciple, think again - none of us measure up to Jesus. Instead, be thankful for the progress you have made and look to what you can do to improve.

*But you, O Lord, be not far from me;
O my help, hasten to aid me..
-Psalm 22:19*

ALL SAINTS ACADEMY CORNER - Holy Week at ASA - 2017

As Lent comes to a close and we look to the Resurrection of our Lord on Easter, the students of All Saints Academy will have a special day of spiritual reflection for all classes, PreSchool through Grade 8. Our retreat day, on Wednesday, April 12th, will focus on the events and lessons of the Paschal Triduum that prepare us to celebrate the Resurrection of Christ. Children will grow spiritually within themselves and share a quiet, thoughtful connection to God. They will pray together, as a school, as they participate in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Through Eucharistic Adoration, our students develop a deep and personal relationship with Jesus who guides them through their entire lives. This time with Jesus in Adoration flows forth into their daily lives and teaches them to turn to Jesus often. And, they will enter the Easter Season with Jesus in their hearts.

The very important presence of faith education truly makes All Saints Academy an extension of the mission of our Catholic parish. This is the time to consider All Saints Academy for your child's faith-based education – an experience that will foster a lifetime. Contact our principal, Mrs. Judith Berg, at 973-334-4704, for more information regarding admission and scholarship opportunities at All Saints Academy.
