

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Pastors Desk

Who am I to judge?

With those five words, it feels to me, that we are changing course in mid-journey. None of us are unaware of the shift in attitude, in spirit, and, most of all, in hopefulness about the future. Pope Francis could have quoted Matthew's Gospel "judge not, lest you be judged" (Mt. 7:1) but I don't believe it would have been as powerful or effective. The self deprecating twist that he has given to almost every gesture has disarmed his critics, inspired many of the faithful, and indeed, fascinated the secular press.

My personal reflection involves Pope Francis effectiveness in proclaiming the message of Jesus. In witnessing Pope Francis style in ministry, I am amazed. The message of Jesus presented through "a pastoral filter" is more attractive than the message of Jesus presented through a "dogmatic filter".

All of us filter the message of Jesus. And that filter, has more or less success in presenting the beauty if the central message to those who witness our lives. It seems to me by observing, pastoral filters are more attractive filters than dogmatic ones!

Look at the excitement in our Church - Now!

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

A woman in Shunem believed strongly in the holiness of the prophet Elisha. To reward her, Elisha promised that she and her aging husband would, within the year, be the parents of a son.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Paul explains to the Romans that by immersion in water at baptism, they "die" to their sins; by rising from the water, they rise from "death and sin" to new life in Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

With simplicity, Jesus tells his apostles that everyone should love him above all others father, mother, son or daughter. He adds, "He who welcomes you, welcomes me."

Give... even a cup of water
in my name.

"Whoever receives you receives me and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me... And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because this little one is a disciple, amen, I say to you he will surely not lose his reward."

One of the gifts Pope Francis extols, is the gift of hospitality. In our families, in our church, we have the ability to open the door and make others feel welcome. A familiar Irish expression reads "A Hundred Thousand Welcome."

Elisha the prophet in the Book of Kings, was offered hospitality by a wealthy woman, and she was rewarded for her gift. The person ready and willing to give ONLY a cup of cold water in the name of Jesus to a little one will not go without a reward.

In the past it was not common to see people carrying a water bottle in public. Sometimes we looked for a fountain for a drink. Maybe the gift of water and hospitality for us can be welcoming a stranger, assisting someone in need, listening to a person who has suffered a loss or suffering a sickness. Whatever gesture I offer can be the Elisha gesture and the water offering which might seem small, but does not go unrewarded.

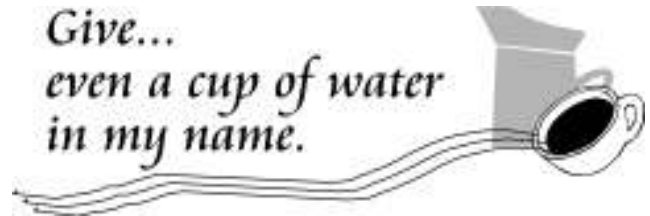

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Reflections

We all manage to do things that we are not very proud of and would prefer that others not know about them. The scriptures remind us that what is hidden will become known. There is a saying: "Never do or say anything you would not like to see printed in the morning newspaper". Consider what guides your choices. How do the things you are ashamed of affect you? What would help you make better choices - choices you would not need to hide?
